Soloists from the Queen Elisabeth Music Chapel 'PiKNiKmuSiK'

Studio 1

Showtimes: 06 March 2009 - 12:30

For their Píkníkmusik recital, the award-winning soloists of the Queen Elisabeth Music Chapel have chosen an audacious repertoire, starting with Schubert's intense Piano Sonata, written two months before he died, Strauss's last Lieder, familiar airs from Puccini's Turandot and Mozart Magic Flute, and Enescu's Third Sonata for Violin and Piano. The challenge for these young musicians is to honour the works while giving them a personal stamp.

Cristina Lucio Villegas - piano
Franz Schubert - 'Piano Sonata' D 958
Manuel de Falla - 'Four Spanish Pieces'

Helen Kearns - soprano, Philippe Riga - piano
Richard Strauss - 'Ich Schwebte'
Richard Strauss - 'Du meines Herzens Kronelein'
'Kommt ein schlanker' aria de Annchen from Der Freischütz C.M. Von Weber
G. Puccini - 'Signore ascolta'

Harriet Langley - violin, Philippe Riga - piano
Henryk Wieniawski Fantaisie brillante op. 20 sur Faust, opéra de Ch. Gounod (app. 18min)

Prod. Flagey
